

188,472 direct services deployed to our neighbors in need in the Mobile and Baldwin communities

116,491
meals provided by licensed home day cares

30,296
services for homeless women and children

26,231
services supporting senior citizens

8,456
services benefiting school-age children

5,787
community resources provided (food, legal aid, recreation, etc.)

1,211
community members volunteered

96% success rate among residents who completed the programs in 2024 and moved into permanent housing, according to HUD's national standards

3,553 individualized case management sessions and 155 life skills classes provided for 240 homeless women and children

16,292 meals provided to 77 registered homebound and congregate senior citizens in the Senior Activities for Independent Living Program

8,398 unique door-to-door transportation services provided for underserved youth and low-income seniors

4,615 meals served to 83 school-age children and 709 hours of activities offered to participants in the After School and Summer Programs

68% of After School participants increased reading literacy averages and 57% increased math averages

3,453 supplemental food boxes distributed to the community by The Joseph Project Food Pantry

$30,466 dollars in emergency and need-based assistance provided to program participants and members of the community

Website

Donate

Volunteer

Testimonials